

A FUR & FASHION TRAILBLAZER

EKATERINA AKKHUZINA

Fur fashion trailblazer Ekaterina Akkhuzina is the owner of Russian based Ekaterina Furs. In Soviet times, Ekaterina's father was the director of a large factory producing fur garments when he founded his company and named it after his daughter, and just like that, Ekaterina Furs was founded When I grew up , Ekaterina begins, I didn't have a question about what I wanted to do... I wanted to continue my father's business. After years at the helm of one of the biggest fur design houses in Russia, Ekaterina is not only focused on the stunning aesthetics of her garments, but she ensures the ethics and sustainability of production at is the highest level. This is Ekaterina's story...